FAULKNER, Sign of the Sairt, south side of Penna. avenue, respectfully invites the citizens of Washington, and all others who desire to have SHIRTS of all sizes, qualities, pattern, or price, to call upon him at his Shirt Factory, opposite the United States Hotel; where he will execute their orders, and warrants his shirts, which are manufactured by the Scamstresses of Washington only, to be good fits and good workmanship. William H. Faulkner has 30 Washington soamstresses constantly employed in making shirts, the demaud for which has greatly increased since they have shirts, the demand for which has greatly increased since they have been worn and tested by members of Congress and other citizens who have purchased them. He would respectfully submit that an establishment like his, which gives regular employment, at fair tieing prices, to a large number of respectable and industrious females, is deserving of liberal encouragement from the citizens of Washington especially, who are bound by principles of reciprocity and interest to encourage their own seamstresses, manufacturers, and mechanics.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE, AND THE

AND THE
BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

WING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which, "the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, vis:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,

STREET INE, VIZ.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW,
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Black wood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, und now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Neviews formarly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as herefore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Sears—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.
